PENN. MANOR.
The first day of March was ushered in with thunder and lightning on Friday night at 12 o'clock.

The teachers were in majority in the school room for a couple of days, on account of high water.

Hugh Sterling has rented his farm to Ed. Greenlee who will move on the place, as soon as Hugh can get ready to move to Trenton.

George Brooks is reported to be very sick with chronic cramps, probably from the effects of wading in the water during the freshet.

There was a very small attendance from this end of the Manor at the funeral of Mrs. James T. White, who died at her residence of W. White, near Tullytown, on last Friday afternoon on account of the freshet and the severe weather.

For many years the deceased conducted a wheelwright shop here to the great satisfaction of the surrounding public. Some of his wagons turned out as good today as some new ones now built. He always was a kind and hospitable man, and his friends in the neighborhood. Interment was at Morris Hill cemetery.

We surely had nearly all kinds of extreme weather these two or three weeks past. The last frost was the highest in twenty years. It came within two feet of being as high as that remarkable "81" frost. The mild weather, south wind and heavy rain, which caused the snow to melt fast caused the river to rise rapidly.

On Sunday great quantities of ice came floating through the Manor for ten hours, mixed with all kinds of debris; even part of a rick of corn-fodder and an old saw landed here. Several cellars were filled with water. Frank Heitzman had a foot of water in his house.

Charles and his wife, who were compelled to move to the second story, and after the water receded there was an inch thick of mud left on the floor. He says he has had his share of it in this one year. The folks on this island had not a dry place to stand for a time. The family had to move up to the second story. The water has fallen a good deal, but it is three feet deep yet on the lower places on the Bordentown road on Tuesday evening.

EMILIE.
Mrs. Harry Willard will visit her parents at Pittsburgh, starting this week and will make a prolonged stay.

Despite the almost impossible roads, which of course limited the attendance at the fair on Saturday, fifty dollars were taken in, leaving for the church benefit the sum of about forty dollars. The difference in money being paid for refreshments which were first class. Great prizes are due Mrs. Kane and claim for their offering efforts in the midst of so many difficulties.

There were no services in the M. E. Church on Sunday as we were much bound. We are again being threatened with being snow bound as on the Sunday previous. Continuation of this weather will likely prevent our general pastor, Mr. Coffman from being with us again as expected conference a change is expected in the circuit and an unmarried man will be given the charge as before.

PENN. VALLEY.
Miss Caroline M. Bartle has been on the sick list for two weeks.

Miss Katherine Lovett was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Lovett, of Philadelphia, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Hendley celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes and son, of Philadelphia, were visiting Mrs. Mary R. Parsons over Sunday.

The school attendance for February was small because of the weather. Only 100 out of 150 were present every day. Edna Dickel was absent one day and William Dickel was absent one and one-half days.

The recent frost damaged the greenhouses and peach orchard of B. F. Muschert and the rain on Friday night destroyed a part of the peach trees.

Edna Dickel was absent one day and William Dickel was absent one and one-half days.

NEWPORTVILLE.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Dandolph spent Saturday and Sunday last at Atlantic City.

William Woodward, who was employed by E. C. Roberts, late registration assessor, has moved into Charles MacCorkle's house on Maple avenue (Fourth ward).

It is alleged that George Williams, who was married recently, will move up on Maple avenue, (Fourth ward), about April 1st. We hope it is true for George is a fine young man.

We are glad to see John W. Birkey around again after a brief illness. Mr. Birkey is full of vim and "get-up-and-go" and he has to be a very sick man before he will leave his post of duty.

Dame Romer has that Henry P. Goslin was off on an "excursion" as it was on election week. We will state for the benefit of that gentleman that it is a good thing that he is not in the city. "Oh, what fools these mortals be!"

It will be several days before all the debris will be cleared from lawns and the road sides. But people are content to sit by their own firesides and read the Philadelphia Inquirer and the only paper in Bristol—The Bucks County Gazette.

We hope in the near future that George W. Strasser will get out of the city and see us. Mr. Strasser is a bright, intelligent man, and we believe, out here in the township, that he would represent our interests at Harrisburg in a careful, judicious manner, and our interests in the city.

It is a good thing that he is not in the city. "Oh, what fools these mortals be!"

News of the County

DOYLESTOWN.
The Directors of the Poor have let the bid contract of the County House to A. M. Keller, of Doylestown, who agrees to furnish a first-class article at $2.50 per hundred pounds. The contract will run from February 1, 1902, to January 1, 1903. The Directors are Henry O. Harris, Esq., as solicitor at a salary of $75 per year.

James Pollock, proprietor of a popular restaurant on State street and ex-member of Town Council, is planning to erect a new hotel in Doylestown. He has purchased the property adjoining his restaurant and will put up a five story building which will be conducted on the European plan. A woman's restaurant and table accommodations for families will be special features of the new hotel. Plans for a license at next term, by which time he hopes to have the hotel constructed. He has been very successful as a restaurant keeper.

The Bucks County Fish Association has been re-organized for another year, and the new members of the organization have taken a great deal of interest in the way of stocking streams, which they now propose to guard, especially as every considerable stream in the county is now being stocked with fish. The association is now in the way of the law is concerned. At the meeting the former officers were elected as follows: President, Lewis H. Clements; Vice President, Martin Hale; Secretary, George MacCorkle; Treasurer, J. O. J. Shellenbarger; Wardens, F. A. LeFevre; Executive Committee, H. H. Atkinson, Joshua Tomlinson, H. H. Bantz and John N. Doan.

Two trimmers are in demand here just now. Property holders have had a great deal of trouble with their branches to clear up to say nothing of washouts of lawns and walks. The problem of how to trim broken trees properly has been discussed on all sides and, as usual, opinions differ. The question is, what to do. Time will tell, but the situation has disclosed the fact that there is a demand for intelligent work of this character and that few men possess the accurate expertise to go about their work in this way. Gradually things are getting into shape and it is believed many of the trees that appeared to be badly injured at first will recover to a great extent.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee held Monday, Asher C. Anderson, Esq., was elected Chairman for a preliminary contest with Henry A. James, Esq. Before the election took place Mr. James withdrew his name and Mr. Anderson and his associates were elected. Mr. Anderson made a speech in which he urged his fellow Democrats to aid in the overthrow of the Republican desperadoes, who now rule the roost. He presented the novel proposition that the party be divided or not. Nobody disputed this but some of the old-timers scratched their heads in the effort to determine how this was to be done. The Committee met Monday, May 1, for the State delegate convention and Monday, September 8, for the County Convention.

At a special meeting held on Thursday last the County Commissioners made a resolution to hold a special election for the purpose of electing a new County Treasurer. The former rate was 2 1/2 mills. The resolution is out of 20 per cent and will make the annual revenue of the county something like $18,000 less. The Commissioners believe that the reduction is entirely unneeded and that the amount named can remain in the pockets of the taxpayers. It is the Board's custom each year to make a careful estimate of the county's needs for the ensuing year, and with the data at hand there is no reason why their judgment should prove to be faulty. The Commissioners know the condition of bridges and other public property in repair and to pay current bills. The Board has taken this step in the interest of the taxpayers, who will no doubt appreciate the lightening of their burden. It is interesting to state that in the year in recent years has the county treasury been depleted. There is always a goodly balance on hand and no county debt. This has been the result of careful management and the foresight of the present Board and their predecessors.

Edwin Elser, the newly appointed County Commissioner, participated in the proceedings of the Board in his official capacity on Thursday. His bond in the sum of $25,000 was filed with the County Clerk on Thursday. He is a resident of Doylestown and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Doylestown National Bank.

Robert Nooley was not to be retarded in his efforts to reach Crofton station last Wednesday. With water one foot on the level he was seen with his old John Wamaker horse making his way to Crofton.

Edward J. Winder sold at public sale last night all his stock and fixtures of the lower William Bantz farm. Stock was in fine condition and brought the highest prices, the pond owner of "Overlook" farm was a prominent bidder. We are very sorry to lose our old friend, Edward J. Winder.

Among the notable persons that attended E. J. Winder's sale on Monday last was ex-Superintendent Henry Baker. Mr. Baker purchased many articles, among them was a handsome medicine chest. As the chest was a very fine one, it was sold for a high price. Mr. Baker is a resident of Doylestown and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Doylestown National Bank.

From the looks of things down in China Lane it will take more than one church to ring the wedding bells, especially if the four couples get the knot tied today evening. Our old friend, Sanderson, will have to get his musicians of the Calhounham hard down to strict practice to be ready for the coming spring events.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one remedy, Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed it swells and shuts off the circulation of the fluids in the ear. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be reached and cured, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars.

Women and Jewels.
Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often retained in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boer's Germinal Syrup. It will prevent consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and a bronchial trouble. You can get Dr. Green's reliable remedies at J. Edward Wright's and Emson Martin's drug stores, Bristol, and E. E. Johnson's, Tullytown. Get Green's Special Almanac.

WEST BRISTOL TOWNSHIP.
Edward Winter's sale was well attended and the articles brought fair prices. Some of the implements, which were nearly new, were sold below value. Corn brought 40 cents per bushel. Eggs sold for ten dollars a pair.

Cords of driftwood have been caught by some of the township residents during the past week. One man caught a large quantity of new lumber, that looked as though it had been washed from a lumber yard. The strong south wind of Saturday last stirred the shore with wood and debris.

In regard to the report being untrue which was stated in this column on February 20 as to the death of a cat which occurred at Baker's "smoker," the event was a great disappointment to the township residents. The information was obtained from one who was present. We are given to understand, also, that there were only "gentlemen" present. Surely the death of an innocent puppy does not signify the absence of "gentlemen."

The ice gorges and freshet in the Delaware river last caused much damage and inconvenience to those who live near the bank. Among those who suffered was the family of Edmund Sineclair, whose basement cellar was filled with water. The family retired at night as usual, but on coming down stairs the next morning found the furniture floating around. Up to the present writing the water still remains in the cellar, pumping apparently having no effect.

We have it from the Newportville correspondent that on February 18 the Eagles of West Bristol township "pulled all the feathers out of the Green Swamp Crows." That is a great mistake. The "Green Swamp Crows" have not missed any of their plumage. Another mistake is made when they call themselves "Eagles"—a grave error. An eagle is a mean and fearless bird. We think they mean buzzards, as that is typical. The buzzard is a useful bird, but when the water subsided it was found that the entire foundation walls on the upper side had been washed away. Many cellars were flooded on both the upper and lower ends of Mill street, but the residents had been warned by the previous high water and had removed their goods to higher floors. The trolley tracks on Mill street were covered by 6 feet of water, but no washouts are reported.

POPULAR SCIENCE.
The sun is traveling at forty miles a second, about 40,000 times as fast as an express train.

The comet of 1843 was the only one during the last century which could be seen in broad daylight.

The solar orb would appear blue to anyone who should view it outside of this planet's atmosphere.

The shadow of the moon which falls on the earth during an eclipse of the sun is usually about fifty miles in diameter.

The moon enjoys 55 1/2 hours of sunlight at a time and then an equal amount of darkness, making her day equal to 25.53 of our day.

It is a law of science that sound cannot travel through a vacuum. The sound waves require the atmospheric conditions for their vibration.

Stars seem to rise and set, like the sun, on account of the earth's revolution on her axis. They seem to rise four minutes earlier every night, on account of the earth's revolution in her orbit.

Polaris is a triple star. The bright star—the North star—moves about the center of mass itself and a dark companion star in 3 days, 23 hours and 14 minutes. These two stars also move slowly around another dark star in a long period.

The Hand in Health.
Let us shake hands with a man, and we will tell you something about his health. The firm, hearty handshake of a sincere man may be rather rough, so that one is taught he has a grip, but it indicates stamina. While denoting a measure of tact and refinement, it points to physical strength. The feeble handshake that returns no pressure, the handshake of a person who has no great strength of body or mind. The quick, nervous handshake of an excitable, nervous temperament, and its opposite, the nervous, passive one, belong to persons in ill health. The hand that threatens to collapse, or give means fear. The feel of the hand called magnetic indicates health and kindness and a desire to help others. In many ways we may decide character by the handshake as well as by the brain—London Doctor.

Amity Between Horses.
When the Duke of Wellington was fighting in Spain, there were two horses which had always drawn the same gun, side by side. In many battles at least one was killed, and the other, on having his food brought as usual, refused to eat, but turned his head around to look for his old friend, and neighed many times as if to call him. All care was in vain. There were other horses near him, but he would not notice them, and he soon afterward died, not having once tasted food since his former companion was killed.—Our Dumb Animals.

His Reward.
"You remember Bingley, who bought a house on each side of his own dwelling so he could choose his own neighbors?"
"Yes, what of him?"
"Well, he died of the cholera, and his estate was sold to pay the expenses of his funeral, and he was buried in the same grave as his old friend Bingley."—Chicago Tribune.

Consistency.
They had been married but two months. He came home one evening to find his wife in tears. She had found an old scrapbook of his in which were pasted some poems he had written to some one else and published in the college papers. "I thought," she said, "you had never loved any one but me." And he promptly reassured her that she had thought truly, and burned up his old scrapbook in the furnace in the basement.

And the next day he found that she had distributed on the mantle and the dresser not less than five photographs of his many former beaux of hers and invited two of them who were in town to dinner the next Sunday.—St. Louis Mirror.

MORRISVILLE.
Miss Sarah Eastburn, of Wynonah, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Joseph G. Haven, a former resident of this place, was a visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. William Young, who has been ill for some time past, is much improved.

Harry Howell and George Vanaken, of Chester, spent Sunday with their parents here.

Preparations are being made to start our lonely trolley car once more. A force of men was engaged in clearing the tracks Tuesday evening.

The telephone here are still out of service and it is reported that repairs will not be completed for at least a month as all of the wires through the borough are down.

A case of small pox has appeared among the laborers on the railroad construction work in South Trenton. The Trenton authorities have over 30 of the employees of the work quarantined in one of the boarding houses.

The borough Council met Monday evening and organized for the coming year. The new members, Messrs. Beck, Hutchinson and Marguerite, presented their reports. The election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, Charles Gentry; Secretary, William E. Margolf; Treasurer, Fred W. Wright; Auditor, William E. Margolf; Street Commissioner, Thomas Riskey; Solicitors, Gileston & James. Surveyor was laid over until previous meeting as was the adoption of rules. Secretary reported that the Burgess had approved the P. R. ordinance.

The residents along the river are much annoyed by the river subsiding without doing any further damage. The residents of the island suffered severely. The house owned by Theo. Weaver was entirely surrounded by the water, which was over the first floor. The house owned by William McKendrick received the most damage. Some years ago during an unusually high river, the water cut a channel across the island and the McKendrick house was built directly in the old channel. When the river raised during the last high water the house was in the center of a raging torrent and it was expected that at any time the house would be carried out into the river. It held to the foundations, however, but when the water subsided it was found that the entire foundation walls on the upper side had been washed away. Many cellars were flooded on both the upper and lower ends of Mill street, but the residents had been warned by the previous high water and had removed their goods to higher floors. The trolley tracks on Mill street were covered by 6 feet of water, but no washouts are reported.

NULMEVILLE.
The annual meeting of the Nulmeville Council was held in the town hall on Monday evening. The meeting was well attended and a number of business the old council adjourned sine die. The new members, A. J. Brown, Jesse G. Webster and A. B. Bachofer were sworn in by Burgess George Harrison. The retiring members, Fred. A. Bachofer, and Jesse G. Webster, Frederick A. Bachofer was elected president of the new council and E. Willard, clerk.

The following committees were appointed: Highway, Bachofer, Martindale and Bachofer; Finance, Webster and Bachofer; and the following committees were appointed: Highway, Bachofer, Martindale and Bachofer; Finance, Webster and Bachofer.

ZUNI INDIAN MAGIC.
A PERFORMANCE THAT FUELS ALL WHO WITNESS IT.

Nearly everybody has heard of and wondered at the mungo growing trick of the Hindoo, by which he makes a seed sprout before the astonished eyes of the European and reach maturity in a very short time.

But few are aware that an equally amazing feat is regularly performed by the Zuni Indians on this continent. Their medicine men at the annual "corn festival" do a stunt of which no satisfactory explanation has ever been advanced. Scientists seeing it have been made, as a cowboy described it, to "look like 30 cents."

Preparation is made for this extraordinary Zuni performance by spreading a large square of clean, yellowish sand on the ground before the southern aperture of the medicine lodge. This sand is carefully smoothed and packed as to present a firm, level surface.

Around the edges of the sand square are then drawn, by means of a ceremonial arrow, figures representing the Great Spirit, the earth, the sun, the sky and the rain. There are also the symbols for corn and for a bountiful harvest.

The indentations made by the arrow are then filled in with pigments, the clouds and sky with blue, the earth with black and the

How a Frolic is a Mortal Man.

Tossed about on the sea of life.

Brained by the rocks in this world of Anchor chains break when they feel most firm.

Leaving us helpless as the worm.

No cause has to exult ourselves.

Records of such men are on our shelves.

Foolish to prophesy more than a day—

Foolish for us poor things of clay.

Fast as the years come rolling 'round

Drop the sands of life upon the ground.

The years are many—the days are few.

As the old pass away, come on the now.

A roiling page, 'neath a grassy mound

At last it is quiet—not a sound

To annoy the ear or pain the heart.

Just so in this world we all take part.
